Michael Cartwright is nationally recognized as a pioneer in integrated services and systems of care. He is the founder and Executive Director of Foundations Associates, a non-profit agency dedicated solely to providing a continuum of care for individuals with co-occurring mental illness and substance abuse disorders. In 1998, Michael established Dual Diagnosis Management, a national disease management utilization review company with the mission of integrating systems of care.

Michael has served in a national consulting capacity for multiple councils and committees and has received numerous awards and honors for his programs. Michael will be presenting on Treatment Outcomes and Policy implications and Core Principle of Effective, Integrated Treatment for individuals with co-occurring mental illness and substance abuse disorders. Additional information regarding Michael Cartwright is available at www.dd-management.com

Andi Johnson, is currently the Director of Operations at ShareHouse. She oversees addiction programming for ShareHouse, Sister's Path, Robinson Recover Center, and Stepping Stones. In her 19 years of experience, she has provided addiction services to clients and families in inpatient, outpatient, correctional, and residential settings. She is considered a Key Supervisor in the application of the Matrix Model Treatment for meth addiction. Andi's passion for eradicating addiction extends to the Legislative Process in the state of North Dakota and Federally. Do We Have an Addict in Our Family is a workshop highlighting the effect of meth addiction on the individual and family. This workshop will feature a panel that will provide a personal side to the addiction and a treatment approach to the addiction.

The North Dakota Conference of Social Welfare allows me to network with others doing similar work as myself. I have found new ways to handle my job and to gather information that I can use in the workplace, at home and in my community.

This fall's conference will offer topics that will help you to be renewed. It will provide a learning experience that is engaging, interesting, intriguing and fun.
